Winner—B. f. by Russell—Certamen.
Went to post at 3:25. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. The Amazon avoided the early hot pace and ran around the field at the head of the stretch and finishing fast won with plenty in hand at the finish. His weight was too much for Unmasked, but he hung on well under a hard drive. Onnet showed speed but was tiring at the end from the effects of the early pace. Knight of Rhodes would have been second but for being interfered with in the last quarter. Carbuncle was shut off several times and was gaining at the end and was third a stride beyond the finish. Her weight anchored Roxane in the stretch when it came to a drive. Lexington Pirate showed well and will do in poorer company.
Scratched—29096 Prosper La Gai, 102.
Overweights—Scarlet Lily, 2 pounds.
The Amazon, show, 4 to 5. Unmasked, show, 3 to 5. Onnet, show, 4 to 1. Knight of Rhodes, show, 1 to 4.

Winner—B. c. by Emperor of Norfolk—Esperanza.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Silva Cruz was lucky throughout, found the going to suit him and won easily. Sir Lewis ran a good race and finished well. Montoya showed early speed, but tired badly in the stretch run and dislikes muddy going. Commissioner Forster was badly cut off on the far turn and might possibly have won but for this costly interference.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Turf, Field and Farm is authority for the statement that the good colt Terminus died in a New York stable, November 4. His sturdy racing at Washington Park made him a local favorite, and he was justly deemed one of the best three-year-olds of the year.

Barley Sugar, b. f. 4, by Derwentwater—Sugar Plum, the property of M. Hendrie, broke her leg in a steeplechase at Baltimore on November 1, and was destroyed.

Walter B. Jennings has arrived at Oakland from Rancho del Paso with a formidable stable of nineteen horses.

A. B., Peoria, Ill. The Lakeside track is at Roby, Indiana, and was formerly called the Roby track.

E. H., Chicago: As the wager is stated, it was a draw because of Ethics being scratched.

Browne, Chicago. The wager on Escalante was a draw.

ORONTAS' GOOD RACE.

A fine drizzle came down at Lakeside yesterday up to the time the horses went to the post in the fifth race, and then it began to pour, rendering the track sloppy. The uninviting weather had no effect in diminishing the crowd, which was as large as the usual Monday gathering. The betting was comparatively light.

The principal race of the day was the fourth, a dash of one mile and seventy yards for three-year-olds and upward. Orontas and Haviland were made equal choices in the betting, being held at 8 to 5, but the former ran one of the best races of his career and after being apparently beaten off while going down the backstretch made up ground rapidly from the half mile post and after a merry drive with Denman Thompson in the last eighth finally won by a length. Denman Thompson finished second four lengths in front of Telamon. The latter raced Haviland to defeat and wore himself out in doing so.

Little Jack Horner took the sprinters Money Mue and Burnie Bunton into camp in the second race, a dash of five furlongs. He and Money Mue fought it out sharply down the last eighth but in the last fifty yards he drew gradually away winning by a length. He slightly interfered with Money Mue in the last sixteenth but hardly enough to make any difference in the result. Burnie Bunton did not show her usual speed and ran as if a little short. Maggie Davis was always outrun.

Dulcimer, long overdue, won the first race, a scramble of five and a half furlongs for two-year-olds, by a head from Fads Meny, which beat Pyrrho the same distance for second place. Coburn's powerful finish was responsible for Dulcimer's victory. Herodes ran a fair fourth, showing at about an even gal throughout.

The long distance race over the Derby route went to the long overdue Azim, which closed up fast by the time the last quarter had been reached and after a short brush with Admetus in the last eighth, came away without much trouble and won by three lengths. Uncle Tom quit at the head of the stretch, but rallied again in the last sixteenth, finishing strongly enough to nip out Admetus on the post for second place by a neck. Frangible and Strangest had enough by the time the turn for home had been reached.

The fifth race was run in a heavy rain storm. It was a six-furlong dash for two-year-olds and was won by Inspector Shea in a hot finish by a head from Golden Glitter, which beat Hoodwink two lengths for second place. Autumn Leaves, the favorite, began to tire fast when the stretch drive came.

Fantasy reveled in the sloppy going in the last race, a dash of one and one-sixteenth miles, taking the lead at flag fall and easily maintaining it all the way. She won hands down by four lengths from Farmer Bennett, which beat the 6 to 5 favorite, Reseda, five lengths for second place. Reseda could not extend herself fully in the going. Precursor and Woodstick ran well for seven furlongs.

Jockey Buchanan was a visitor at the track yesterday, having just returned from across the water. He expects to return on the 15th of January and ride for W. K. Vanderbilt in France.

It is reported M. H. Tichenor has bought Valdez from James Arthur for $2,000.

Little Jack Horner, which won the second race yesterday and beat such sprinters as Money Mue and Burnie Bunton, is trained by J. O. Keene.
